AT&T FLORIDA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

COMES NOW, BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T Florida"), and pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, and Sections 364.183 and 364.24, files its Request for Specified Confidential Classification.

1. On November 9, 2007, AT&T Florida filed its Supplemental Response to dPi's Request for Information, Number 1-19. AT&T Florida filed a Notice of Intent to Request Specified Confidential Classification regarding this proprietary material on that same day.

2. AT&T Florida hereby files this Request for Specified Confidential Classification because the information contained in this response includes customer specific information that is confidential and proprietary under Florida Statutes, Sections 364.183 and 364.24.

3. Attachment A to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification contains an explanation of the proprietary information along with a list that identifies the location of the information designated by AT&T Florida as confidential.

4. Attachment B to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is two redacted copies of the confidential information.

5. Attachment C to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is a proprietary copy of the confidential information, highlighted to clearly indicate the proprietary material.

6. Public disclosure of this information would be in contravention of the above-referenced statutory provisions, and would result in the public disclosure of private information regarding subscribers. This information should be classified as confidential business information and customer proprietary information pursuant to Section 364.24 and Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

6. AT&T Florida has treated, and intends to continue to treat, the information for which confidential classification is sought as private, and this information has not been generally disclosed.

7. The original of this Request was filed today with the Division of the Commission Clerk and Administrative Services and a copy was served on the Parties.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, AT&T Florida respectfully requests that the Commission enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential, proprietary business information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 21th day of November 2007.

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. The proprietary material included in this document is end user customer specific information. In particular, the proprietary information consists of phone numbers of AT&T's end users and such information is deemed by AT&T Florida to be proprietary information. The Commission has always zealously protected customer specific information in order to protect the customer's privacy and to prevent a competitor from obtaining an unfair marketing advantage. Furthermore, this information is also expressly deemed to be confidential pursuant to Sections 364.183(3)(e) and 364.24, Florida Statutes.
