BEFORE THE FLORIDA PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

In re: Petition for approval to revise customer) Docket No: 070646-TL contact protocol by BellSouth) Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida) _____) Filed: December 12, 2007

AT&T FLORIDA'S REQUEST FOR SPECIFIED CONFIDENTIAL CLASSIFICATION

BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Florida ("AT&T Florida"), pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, hereby files its Request for Specified Confidential Classification.

1. On November 21, 2007, AT&T Florida filed its Responses to Staff's First Set of Interrogatories and First Request for Production of Documents. AT&T Florida's Responses to Interrogatory Nos. 3 and 9 and Request for Production of Documents Nos. 1 and 6 contain information to be considered confidential business information. A Notice of Intent to Request Specified Confidential Classification was also filed on that same day.

2. Pursuant to Rule 25-22.006, AT&T Florida hereby files this Request for Specified Confidential Classification because the above documents contain information considered confidential business information related to the competitive interests of AT&T Florida that is proprietary to AT&T Florida. A more specific description of this information is contained in Attachment A.

3. Public disclosure of this information would cause competitive harm to AT&T Florida and provide competitors with an unfair advantage. The information discussed in this Request for Specified Confidential Classification is valuable and AT&T Florida strives to keep it secret. Therefore, such information should be classified as confidential business information pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes. Accordingly, it should be held exempt from the public disclosure requirements of Section 119.07, Florida Statutes.

4. Attachment A to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification contains an explanation of the proprietary information along with a list that identifies the location of the information designated by AT&T Florida as confidential.

5. Attachment B to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is redacted copies of the document containing the confidential information.

6. Attachment C to AT&T Florida's Request for Confidential Classification is a highlighted copy of the document containing the confidential information.

7. The original of this Request was filed today with the Office of the Commission Clerk and a copy was served on the Parties.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, AT&T Florida respectfully requests that, pursuant to Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, the Commission enter an order declaring the information described above to be confidential, proprietary business information that is not subject to public disclosure.

Respectfully submitted this 12th day of December, 2007.

Explanation of Proprietary Information

1. This information contains confidential, proprietary marketing information used by AT&T Florida in conducting its business, and is information not commonly known by or available to the public. AT&T Florida strives to keep this information confidential and not publicly disclose the information. This information contains detailed percentages and/or numbers of customers' purchasing information describing the types of local/long distance bundles selected. This information is entitled to confidential classification pursuant to Section 364.183(3), Florida Statutes.
2. This information contains confidential, proprietary business information. In particular this information contains internal policies and procedures developed by AT&T Florida in dealing with customer selection of local toll/long distance carriers. This information is entitled to confidential classification pursuant to Section 364.183(3), Florida Statutes.
