Dear Ms. Sibula:

My clients wish to waive this deadline until sixty (60) days from today's date, in anticipation of the undocketed workshops scheduled by the Commission for May 8th and May 30th, which will address matters closely related to the issues raised in the petition. Please accept this letter as an official request by the petitioners to waive the statutory timeline until 60 days from today's date, which is intended to allow filing of a staff recommendation for decision at the June 17 Commission Agenda Conference. I thank you for your attention to this matter.
