25. Did the relief requested in Verizon's petition for Forbearance deemed granted by operation of law, effective March 19, 2006, affect your business model going forward? If so, how? Because the scope of the relief granted by operation of law to Verizon has not been defined, NuVox is unable to completely assess the impact this regulatory change has had or will have on its business model. Like most deregulation granted to the Bell companies, NuVox expects that this "relief" will result in higher prices for bottleneck network inputs which in turn will result in higher prices for consumers and small businesses served by competitors such as NuVox.

Comments

26. Have you experienced any significant barriers in entering Florida's local exchange markets? Please list and describe any major obstacles or barriers encountered that you believe may be impeding the growth of local competition in the state, along with any suggestions as to how to remove such obstacles. Any additional general comments or information you believe will assist staff in evaluating and reporting on the development of local exchange competition in Florida are welcome.

Significant barriers exist in Florida for competitors desiring to enter or provide additional competitive local services. As one example, Commission-set unbundled network element rates for Verizon and Embarq are in some cases higher than special access and even some retail rates. As another example, NuVox has been denied the ability to serve customers on an economically efficient basis where those customers are served by Verizon FiOS in both so-called Greenfield or Brownfield areas. The Commission should consider convening an industry working group as a means of assessing and potentially addressing such obstacles.

Company Name:

NuVox Communications, Inc.

Company Code*:

TX824

* Your Company code is shown on the label affixed to the envelope in which this was mailed and on the cover letter.

THIS TABLE IS TO ONLY CAPTURE VoIP LINES. DO NOT INCLUDE LINES REPORTED IN TABLE 1.

Complete Table 5 if you provided VoIP service to Florida end users via one or more voice-grade equivalent (VGE) lines or wireless VGE channels.

An access line connects the end user's customer premises equipment (CPE) to the serving switch and allows the end user to originate and/or terminate local telephone calls on the public switched telephone network (PSTN). The access line counts in Table 5 below must be based on all of your different types of access lines (including fixed wireless) that are used to provide VoIP service.

Each field must be populated. All entries must be made without quotation marks.

TABLE COLUMN INSTRUCTIONS:

Column (a). List Exchanges in alphabetical order corresponding to the primary location where service is provided. Reported exchange data should not be based on secondary service locations (i.e., where service has been moved temporarily to a secondary location such as a vacation home).

Column (b). Enter the abbreviation Res for Residential lines or Bus for Business lines. Residential lines and business lines must be entered in separate rows.

Column (c). Enter line count as voice-grade equivalents (VGEs). Report VGEs based on how the customer is billed. If the customer is billed for a dynamic bandwidth VoIP product, the line count would be the maximum number of VoIP lines available. If the customer is billed for a specific number of VoIP lines, or a range of lines, the VoIP line count would be the number of VoIP lines or the highest number of the range, respectively. Each line count must be entered in separate rows.

Complete Part II if you provided one or more voice-grade equivalent lines or wireless voice-grade equivalent channels used for local exchange or exchange access service in the state. See Instructions about including lines provisioned over channelized high-capacity facilities, including PRI circuits used to provide local connectivity to dial-up ISPs. Also see Instructions for definitions of "voice telephone service", "voice-grade equivalent", "end user", "residential lines", "presubscribed interstate long distance carrier", "own local loop facilities", and "UNE-Platform".

If in Part II you report voice-grade equivalent lines or voice-grade equivalent wireless channels for service provided to end users, you must provide in Part V a list containing the 5-digit Zip Codes of the locations to which you provide those lines or channels. See Instructions.
