Docket No. 080036-TP
Filed: May 30, 2008

BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS' REQUEST FOR CONFIDENTIAL TREATMENT

Pursuant to Rule 25-22.006 (4) and (5), Florida Administrative Code, Bright House Networks Information Services (Florida), LLC, and its affiliate, Bright House Networks, LLC (together, "Bright House"), through their attorneys, respectfully submit this Request for Confidential Treatment regarding information contained in the Direct Testimony of Timothy M. Frenberg, filed on May 30, 2008. Provided with this Request is a copy of Mr. Frenberg's testimony with the confidential information highlighted, as well as two, public redacted versions of the information.

In support of its request, Bright House states that certain information on page 3 of Mr. Frenberg's Direct Testimony fits the definition of "proprietary confidential business information", which is defined as:

"Proprietary confidential business information" is defined as meaning "information, regardless of form or characteristics, which is owned or controlled by the ... company, is intended to be and is treated by the ... company as private in that the disclosure of the information would cause harm to the ratepayers or the company's business operations, and has not been disclosed unless disclosed pursuant to a statutory provision, an order of a court or administrative body, or private agreement that provides that the information will not be released to the public."

§ 364.183(3), Fla. Stat.

Furthermore, Section 364.183, Florida Statutes, provides that information relating to a company's competitive interests, which if disclosed would negatively impact the company's competitive interests, shall be considered to be "proprietary confidential business information," and thus, exempt from Section 119.07 (1), Florida Statutes.

Certain information in Mr. Frendberg's testimony would, if disclosed, provide competitors with information regarding marketing strategies, and the effectiveness thereof, which would allow such competitors an unfair advantage in crafting competitive strategies targeted at Bright House's operations. Specifically, Bright House seeks confidential treatment of the highlighted information on page 2, in line 21 of Timothy M. Frendberg's Direct Testimony. This information is not otherwise readily available in the market, and divulging it in this context would certainly provide competitors with an unfair market advantage. Bright House has, and continues to, treat this information as proprietary, confidential business information. Thus, Bright House respectfully asks that this information be granted confidential treatment and be made subject to an appropriate protective order.

Respectfully submitted this 30th day of May, 2008.
