RECEIVED-FPSC

On February 12, 2009, staff received an e-mail from Mr. Evan Meyer advising that the 2007 Regulatory Assessment Fee (RAF) was a pre-petition debt and because the Commission did not make a claim on it, the 2007 RAF could not be paid. Mr. Meyer asked that we continue our process to cancel Integretel's IXC registration and requested that the 2007 RAF be written off. Please document the e-mail in Case Management System in Docket No. 090032-TI. Thanks.

Subject: 2007 FLA PSC fee for The Billing Resource dba Integretel

Paula:

The Billing Resource dba Integretel (Debtor), filed its Chapter 11 bankruptcy petition on September 16, 2007. The case was filed in:

U.S. Bankruptcy Court
Northern District of California
San Jose Division
Case No. 07-52980 ASW

The $700 fee you are requesting for 2007 is a pre-petition liability of the Debtor. Unfortunately, the Florida PSC did not file a proof of claim for the amount owed.

The Debtor, therefore, is unable to legally pay any portion of this pre-petition liability. Please write-off the 2007 fee and continue to process the Debtor's December 17, 2008 request to cancel its certificate in Florida.

Thank you.

Kind regards,

Evan
