just talked to Carl.....

Portions of Doc #06279-09 can go back to the company (AT&T). However, interview notes must be maintained. I can come down in the morning to separate those out from the parts that can be returned. Preference is that it go back rather than be shredded; let them decide method of destruction or to keep it further themselves. If it's an all-or-nothing sort of deal, we'll have to keep Doc #06279-08 intact, stored, and suspending a final decision until later.

Doc #06277-08 & Doc #06288-08 are interview notes and will need to be maintained, with decision on disposition tabled until sometime later.

Might end up being tomorrow before you get an answer on the docs. Carl isn't in right now and I'm waiting for him to return. Hopefully, he'll do so and we can talk before my scheduled 4pm departure time. If not.....tomorrow morning OK?
