To whom it may concern:

Talk of the Town telephone company is funded by the owners: Anthony Bassett, Crystal Bonner, and Lachelle Sullivan. The owners will handle all financial obligations via employment salaries. When it is deemed necessary we will obtain a loan or capital from retirement and savings. We are a very new company we are gradually developing and trying to grow successfully. All expenses thus far has been split three ways and each partner has paid there portion of the expenses. This is the plan that we are implementing with all the future expenses. We understand that in the near future that we have the option of obtaining a loan if need be. Thank you in advance for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely Submitted,

Talk of The Town LLC.
