PARTIES

Katie,

What docket was this for? This appears to be an automatic response from SipCom advising that an order or notice that we sent to them was unable to be delivered. I don't know if it was a problem with their e-mail server, spam filter, or other type of filter. However, it advises that the message will be evaluated by their technical support. So, the appropriate person(s) should get the order/notice. Please print this message and put it in the parties/interested persons correspondence folder for the appropriate docket. Please also send a copy of the order/notice to the appropriate person/party via U.S. mail, to be on the safe side.
