CONSUMER

Good afternoon, Puja,

We have received your request below. Once documents are filed with the Commission, they have to be entered in the Case Management System and then taken over to scanning. Once they are scanned, they will be available on the website. If they don't show up today, and barring any unforeseen electronic hardware problems, they should be available no later than close of business tomorrow. We try to get scanning completed within 24 hours. However, when all these reports come in at the same time, it slows down the process, so it may take a little bit longer than usual.

The CASR is not the same as the document filing itself. It's the Case Assignment and Scheduling Report. Staff file CASRs in dockets to advise of pertinent events such as recommendation filing due dates, hearing dates, etc.

I hope you find this information helpful. Let us know if you need any further information.

To Whom It May Concern,

I am interested in viewing the recently submitted energy efficiency plans by Florida utilities. I am able to see on the FL PSC website that the documents were filed, however I am unable to see the document itself.

I noticed that on each of the filing description there was the term "CASR Not Yet Filed" – does this refer to the document itself?

Do you have a sense of when the full documents will be on the FL PSC website?

Thank you for your time and help. It is much appreciated.

Best wishes,
 Puja

Good afternoon, Beth,

We received your request below. However, programatically, we can only include one e-mail address. We can change the e-mail address from Mr. Savage to Ms. Frappier's e-mail address, but we are unable to include both. Let us know which one you would prefer to use and we'll make any necessary revisions. Thank you for your help!

Dear Ms. Cole,

Would it be possible to include the email address for Ms. Danielle Frappier in the list of Parties/Attorneys for this Docket? Ms. Frappier is already listed, along with Mr. Savage and the Davis Wright Tremaine law firm, but only Mr. Savage's email is currently included in the listing.
Ms. Frappier's email address is:

Danielle.Frappier@dwt.com

Thank you very much for your consideration and assistance.
