Case Background

On July 14, 2009, Arma Water Service, LLC (Arma or Utility) filed an application for an original water certificate in Marion County. The proposed service area includes 22 duplexes, approximately 96 homes on private wells, and additional vacant lots in the Leighton Estates subdivision in Ocala. The Utility currently provides water service to the 22 duplexes (44 connections) at no charge. The area is in the St. Johns River Water Management District. No central wastewater service is provided and therefore each home has a septic tank.

In 2004, several of the private wells in the area failed. Marion County subsequently required that single and multi-family homes could not construct a private well unless the homes
