Jeff,

Thank you for the clarification. The docket title has been updated to reflect "resale" agreement, rather than "interconnection" agreement. There were no changes to company names.

Correction, the ILEC is Windstream, not CenturyLink.

Thanks,

Jeff

Jeff, we will make the revision to the docket title per your instruction below.

Please make sure that the ILEC makes it obvious that it is a "CORRECTED" transmittal letter and includes "Docket No. 110325-TP," so that a new docket isn't inadvertently opened.

Thank you!

Dorothy, I have a message in to the ILEC (CenturyLink) regarding the above docket to request a corrected transmittal letter. The letter indicates the filing is an interconnection agreement, but it is a resale agreement.

This docket is one of several that I over looked in the last week, but the only one that needs a correction. I need to correct the docket title for the memo I'm preparing, but I don't believe the corrected letter from the ILEC will be here before the docket is closed.
