Re: Docket 110200-WU -- Application for increase in water rates in Franklin County by Water Management Services, Inc.

Dear Ms. Cole:

Enclosed for electronic filing is a CONFIDENTIAL copy the Citizens' witness Helmut W. Schultz direct testimony and exhibits. A small portion of Mr. Schultz's testimony and three exhibits contain Utility discovery responses which are currently subject to the Utility's October 25, 2012, motion for temporary protective order, and as such are being filed as confidential.

The Utility will file any necessary documents for purposes of protecting its claim of confidentiality. Upon review, the Utility will make specific designation(s) of confidentiality (or none at all) and at that time the Citizens will file a redacted or fully public version of Mr. Schultz's testimony and exhibits as warranted.

The Citizens are utilizing this process as matter of expedience, understanding that the Commission staff needs to begin reviewing Mr. Schultz's testimony and exhibits immediately. In doing so, we do not waive any objections we may have to any claim of confidentiality that the Utility may assert.
