 COMMISSION
 CLERK

By a copy of this memorandum, we recommend that the Clerk return Document No. 06604-05 to the source and further recommend that Document No. 06625-05 be granted a fourth 18-month extension of confidential classification along with Document No. 00499-13.

Confidential Document No. 00499-13 was filed along with a request for a fourth extension of the confidential classification for the 2005 FPL Conservation Cost Recovery Clause Audit. FPL reduced the amount of sensitive material that is to be held for the extended classification period. The public listing of the sensitive information can be found within Clerk's Document No. 00501-13.

The above confidential material was filed along with a fourth request for extension of confidential classification. Please complete the following form by checking all applicable information and forward it to the attorney assigned to the docket, along with a brief memorandum supporting your recommendation.

- The document(s) is (are), in fact, what the utility asserts it (them) to be.
- The utility has provided enough details to perform a reasoned analysis of its request.
- The material has been received incident to an inquiry.
- The material is confidential business information because it includes:
 - (a) Trade secrets;
 - (b) Internal auditing controls and reports of internal auditors;
 - (c) Security measures, systems, or procedures;
 - (d) Information concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the company to contract for services on favorable terms;
 - (e) Information relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of information.
 - (f) Employee personnel information unrelated to compensation, duties, qualifications, or responsibilities;
- The material appears to be confidential in nature and harm to the company or its ratepayers will result from public disclosure.
- The material appears not to be confidential in nature.
- The material is a periodic or recurring filing and each filing contains confidential information.

This response was prepared by V. Hymowitz on 02/13/13, a copy of which has been sent to the Office of Commission Clerk and the Office of General Counsel.
