Subject: company reponse to docket# 130033pu.

Dear Ms. Gervasi:

This is company response to the above docket:

1. Generally speaking, I think it would be better to allow just one 30 day extension and be done with it. no confusion.
2. Page 12 6-b. I think this should be revised to include an exemption if the commission has previously granted a payment program for from a prior period..
3. This is not addressed in this docket but I think you should add the ability (especially for us class c)to make monthly payments to the commission for the year and settle up the difference . For example if I think my 2012 RAF would be $1200, I could make $100 per month payments to the commission, Jan- Dec. 2012 and reconcile the difference when my RAF are due in March. It would help me with cash flow issues and may reduce the need to file an extension.

I hope this helps,

Mike Smallridge
