Dear Mr. McDaniel:

Re: Review of the 2013 Ten-Year Site Plans for Florida's Electric Utilities

Pursuant to Section 186.801, Florida Statutes, the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) is responsible for reviewing and classifying each electric utility's Ten-Year Site Plan as "suitable" or "unsuitable." As part of the annual review in accordance with Rule 25-22.071, Florida Administrative Code, the Commission must provide a copy of the relevant Ten-Year Site Plans and solicit the views of appropriate state, regional, and local agencies. To this end, the Commission has made available on its website electronic copies of the 2013 Ten-Year Site Plans for all the Florida electric utilities at the following link:

<http://www.psc.state.fl.us/utilities/electricgas/10yrsiteplans.aspx>

Below is a list of those electric utilities that have identified preferred or potential plant sites in your jurisdiction. Please review these Ten-Year Site Plans and provide comments, along with a brief summary if possible, on their suitability as planning documents. Please note that these plans are not designed to give information about proposed facilities in such detail as would be required for a development permit or other formal process.

To this end, the Commission has made available on its website electronic copies of the 2013 Ten-Year Site Plans for all the Florida electric utilities at the following link:

<http://www.psc.state.fl.us/utilities/electricgas/10yrsiteplans.aspx>

Below is a list of those electric utilities that have identified preferred or potential plant sites in your jurisdiction. Please review these Ten-Year Site Plans and provide comments, along with a brief summary if possible, on their suitability as planning documents. Please note that these plans are not designed to give information about proposed facilities in such detail as would be required for a development permit or other formal process.

Dear Mr. Freeman:

Re: Review of the 2013 Ten-Year Site Plans for Florida's Electric Utilities

Pursuant to Section 186.801, Florida Statutes, the Florida Public Service Commission (Commission) is responsible for reviewing and classifying each electric utility's Ten-Year Site Plan as "suitable" or "unsuitable." As part of the annual review in accordance with Rule 25-22.071, Florida Administrative Code, the Commission must provide a copy of the relevant Ten-Year Site Plans and solicit the views of appropriate state, regional, and local agencies. To this end, the Commission has made available on its website electronic copies of the 2013 Ten-Year Site Plans for all the Florida electric utilities at the following link:
