DUKE ENERGY FLORIDA, INC.’S OBJECTIONS TO NRG FLORIDA LP’S FIRST REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS
(NOS. 1-17)

Pursuant to Florida Administrative Code Rule 28-106.206, Rules 1.350 and 1.280 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Order Establishing Procedure, Order No. PSC-14-0275-PCO-EI, issued May 29, 2014 (the “Order”) in this matter, Duke Energy Florida, Inc. (“DEF”) serves its objections to NRG Florida LP’s (“NRG”) First Request for Production of Documents (Nos. 1-17) (the “Document Request”) and states as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

With respect to the “Definitions” and “Instructions” in the Document Request:

DEF generally objects to the Document Request to the extent that it call for documents protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant-client privilege, the trade secret privilege, or any other applicable privilege or protection afforded by law. DEF will provide a privilege log within a reasonable time or as may be agreed to by the parties to the extent that a request calls for the production of privileged or protected documents or information. Moreover, DEF will include in its privilege log only the information required by Florida law and not some inconsistent and additional requirement under the Instructions and Definitions.

Further, in certain circumstances, DEF may determine upon investigation and analysis that responsive documents to which objections are not otherwise asserted are confidential and proprietary and should be produced only under an appropriate confidentiality agreement and protective order, if at all. By agreeing to provide such information in response to such a request, DEF is not waiving its right to insist upon appropriate protection of confidentiality by means of a confidentiality agreement, protective order, or the procedures otherwise provided by law. DEF hereby asserts its right to require such protection of any and all information that may qualify for protection under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and all other applicable statutes, rules, and legal principles.

DEF also generally objects to the Document Request to the extent that it calls for the production of “all” documents or information of any nature, including, every copy of every document responsive to the requests. DEF objects to the definition of the term “document” as overbroad and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. DEF will make a good faith, reasonably diligent attempt to identify and obtain responsive documents or information in its possession, custody, or control when no objection has been asserted, but it is not practicable or even possible to identify, obtain, and produce “all” information or documents. In addition, DEF reserves the right to supplement any of its responses to the Document Request if DEF cannot respond immediately due to their magnitude and the work required aggregating them, or if DEF later discovers additional responsive information or documents in the course of this proceeding.

DEF further objects to the Instructions and Definitions to the extent that they seek to impose requirements on the responses to the Document Requests beyond the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. DEF will respond to the Document Request consistent with the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and not some inconsistent and additional requirement under the Instructions and Definitions.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS

NRG Request #3: DEF objects to this interrogatory as overboard, not relevant to the issues in this docket, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in this docket to the extent it requests broad information on CR1 and CR2 MATS compliance, which is the subject of a separate docket in front of the Commission. Subject to this objection, DEF will provide an appropriate response to this interrogatory.

NRG Request #7: DEF objects to this interrogatory to the extent it requests information related to “each generation supply option analyzed” as overbroad, not relevant to the issues raised by NRG in this docket, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in this docket. Subject to this objection, DEF will provide an appropriate response to this interrogatory.

NRG Request #9: DEF objects to this interrogatory to the extent it requests information related to “all generation alternatives” as overbroad, not relevant to the issues raised by NRG in this docket, and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in this docket. Subject to this objection, DEF will provide an appropriate response to this interrogatory.

Respectfully submitted this 23rd day of June, 2014.
