In re: Nuclear Cost Recovery Clause.

Docket No. 140009-EI

Submitted for Filing: July 7, 2014

---

DUKE ENERGY FLORIDA, INC.'S OBJECTIONS TO CITIZENS' SECOND REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS (NOS. 41-55)

Pursuant to Florida Administrative Code Rule 28-106.206, Rules 1.350 and 1.280 of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Order Establishing Procedure, Order No. PSC-14-0082-PCO-EI, issued February 4, 2014 (the "Order") in this matter, Duke Energy Florida, Inc. ("DEF") serves its objections to the Office of Public Counsel's ("Citizens" or "OPC") Second Request for Production of Documents (Nos. 41-55) (the "Document Request") and states as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

With respect to the "Definitions" and "Instructions" in the Document Request:

DEF generally objects to the Document Request to the extent that it call for documents protected by the attorney-client privilege, the work product doctrine, the accountant-client privilege, the trade secret privilege, or any other applicable privilege or protection afforded by law. DEF will provide a privilege log within a reasonable time or as may be agreed to by the parties to the extent that a request calls for the production of privileged or protected documents or information.

Further, in certain circumstances, DEF may determine upon investigation and analysis that responsive documents to which objections are not otherwise asserted are confidential and proprietary and should be produced only under an appropriate confidentiality agreement and protective order, if at all. By agreeing to provide such information in response to such a request,

DEF is not waiving its right to insist upon appropriate protection of confidentiality by means of a confidentiality agreement, protective order, or the procedures otherwise provided by law. DEF hereby asserts its right to require such protection of any and all information that may qualify for protection under the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and all other applicable statutes, rules, and legal principles.

DEF also generally objects to the Document Request to the extent that it calls for the production of “all” documents or information of any nature, including, every copy of every document responsive to the requests. DEF objects to the definition of the term “document” as overbroad and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. DEF will make a good faith, reasonably diligent attempt to identify and obtain responsive documents or information when no objection has been asserted, but it is not practicable or even possible to identify, obtain, and produce “all” information or documents. In addition, DEF reserves the right to supplement any of its responses to the Document Request if DEF cannot respond immediately due to their magnitude and the work required aggregating them, or if DEF later discovers additional responsive information or documents in the course of this proceeding.

DEF further objects to the Instructions and Definitions to the extent that they seek to impose requirements on the responses to the Document Requests beyond the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure. DEF will respond to the Document Request consistent with the requirements of the Florida Rules of Civil Procedure, and not some inconsistent and additional requirement under the Instructions and Definitions.

DEF also objects to the timeframe provided for in the Instructions as overbroad and not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in this docket because the Instruction requests documents created since January 1, 2005.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIONS

Document Request No. 42, 43, 44, , 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 53, and 54:

DEF specifically objects to these Document Requests because they request documents and information that are not relevant to any of the issues for consideration by the Commission in this docket and, as such, these document requests are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence in this 2014 NCRC docket-cycle. Subject to this objection, and without waiving same, DEF will provide an appropriate response.

Respectfully submitted this 7th day of July, 2014.
