RE: Docket No. 15001-EI - Fuel and Purchased Power Cost Recovery Clause with Generating Performance Incentive Factor

Per the attached letter, Duke Energy Florida, Inc. (Duke) has indicated that the period of confidential treatment for Document No. 02997-13, its April 2013 Form 423 Report, will expire in August of 2015. Duke has determined that this information is no longer confidential and would like the material to be returned to the company if the Staff no longer needs it. Duke advises that this material can be declassified if the Staff wishes to retain it.

At this time the Staff does not wish to retain this material. That being the case, please return this material to Duke at your earliest convenience.

Re: Fuel and Purchased Power Cost Recovery Clause with Generating Performance Incentive Factor; Docket No. 150001-EI: Confidential documents submitted in Docket 130001

Dear Ms. Brownless:

On May 31, 2013, Duke Energy Florida, Inc., ("DEF") filed its Request for Confidential Classification of certain materials produced in the above-referenced docket (DN# 02996-13, confidential DN#02997-13).

By Order No. PSC-13-0363, dated August 7, 2013, the Commission granted DEF's request.

The period of confidential treatment granted by the Commission will soon expire. DEF has determined that the information that was the subject of DEF's Request is no longer confidential. DEF hereby requests Staff to return the confidential documents to DEF if Staff determines the documents are no longer needed.

If Staff currently intends to retain the referenced documents, DEF advises the documents can now be declassified.

If you will, kindly advise me of your intentions. I can be reached at Matthew.Bernier@duke-energy.com or 850.521.1428. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

s/Matthew R. Bernier
