DOCET NO. 150102-SU

I have a beautiful condo I purchased at Cape Haze Resort. My dream is to retire in lovely Florida. When I turn 65 12 years from now, my condo will be paid for and I will move from Minnesota to Florida. But until then I am paying for two households which means doing without some things so I can get to Florida someday. I try to rent-out my Cape Haze Condo when I can to help cover the expenses which also brings money to your state.

If you raise the utilities to this level, I will be forced to sell my condo and won't be able to retire in Florida. Minnesota is very cold, please reconsider this rate hike.

Thank-you Cheryl Cook
