Subject: Full rate increase

Just say no. I do not care to increase the annual reward benefits of those who already earn an egregious salary when presented against the average salaried earner, least of all my own meager annual income. This type of "bonus" just cries whore. It is not my intent to be crude, but to show the same declarative value this increase deserves. My bills are modest, as is my income. Please be aware of those of us who's income is in keeping with their spending. I have no desire to end up in medaid state operated housing. Truly, every cent counts for those of us on limited incomes. Please be aware and concerned.

160021E1 - 1percent increase

Thank you,

Kathy Saye
