Subject: Florida Power and Light proposed rate hike

To whom it may concern.

In the twenty years I have lived in my home in West Palm Beach, little has been done to improve or maintain the delivery of the service in our neighborhood. FPL proposed burying the lines in the easement in 1946; poles and lines existing are a constant hazard, especially during hurricanes. If called for trees interfering with the lines in the easement, FPL sends low paid subcontractors who are not interested in completing any work.

FPL has also lobbied in Tallahassee to suppress competitive solar power companies from introducing their products to reduce costs to public buildings.

Withhold rate hikes; FPL has to serve its clients, not the shareholders who may not use their services. FPL has not lowered rates since they were hiked during fuel price increases.

Thank you.
