The water company posted these pictures on-line, thought you may like to see them. Not one patch as was reported, but two. Don't know if the health Department has had a look at them.

Good to hear... Thanks.... I'll keep you informed of anything that continues to happen..... I just got a water bill for $98.33 in the mail for one of my tenant properties. Because it's a tenant property I do not know if there is a meter problem or not. I know there are no leaks, it could be useage. I'm not saying anything, I'm going to pay it, and see what happens next month. So at this point no complaint, but you should be aware of it. Thanks for your help, and sorry to take up so much of your time. Steve
