Dorothy, please change the title for this docket to show it as an amendment to the "interconnection and resale agreement" instead of IURC, per AT&T's verification, below.

Chip, make a note in your records for future reference. No need to send a corrected letter this time.

Jeff

That appears to be a correct assessment. Please let me know if you would like for me to submit a new cover letter.

Chip,

The underlying ICA for the above amendment is/was for resale only, and the subsequent amendment in Docket No. 150079-TP, added intercarrier compensation. Since collocation and unbundled network don't appear to be present in the contract, should this be styled as an "amendment to the interconnection and resale agreement" instead?
