Hi Mark, please see Dianne's e-mail below. Do we need to retain the material contained in the 8th, 9th, and 10th confidentiality requests? Would it suffice for us to return the material with the understanding that DEF will retain it in-house and will produce it again if we need it?

Thanks,
Rosanne

Hi Rosanne,

Thanks for the discussion today. Here is a brief summary of the documents subject to Requests for Confidential Classification (RFCC) that will expire 6/29/17 unless we make another filing or the Commission returns the documents to DEF:

The 8th RFCC concerns confidential portions of information provided in DEF's response to Staff's 2nd Rogs (specifically underwriter's lists, underwriting fees and structuring agent fees).

The 9th RFCC concerns confidential portions of information provided in DEF's response to Staff's 4th PODs (specifically Guidant, our outside labor company, contract information).

The 10th RFCC concerns confidential portions of information provided in DEF's Suppl. response to Staff's 4th PODs (specifically Hunton and Williams and Shutts and Bowen, outside legal counsel, engagement letters and fees).

Thanks!
