I reached out to Marty at the beginning of April, and was provided with the following response. I forwarded the Affidavit to staff right after I got it – so staff has it now. I believe that we need to get a recommendation from them and take it from there. There have been no deadlines set.

Attached is the Affidavit signed by Mr Leeward. I am pretty sure this is worded as we agreed. We still have not heard back from the bank so this is the best we can do. Let me know what if anything else you need to move forward. Thanks

Marty,

I suggest you submit whatever you have at this point, and if you get anything additional from the bank you can submit it at a later point.

I have sent two affidavits to Mr Leeward over 6 weeks ago . One for only him to sign and one for both he and the bank to sign. He has approached the bank over 5 weeks ago, but has not gotten a response about if they are willing to sign such a document. I told you they probably would not but wanted to at least ask first. The problem is they may never respond as they have no obligation or real reason to do so.

I can certainly get Mr Leeward to sign the one for just him if that would be sufficient. I have a feeling we may not get anything more no matter how long we wait on the bank or bug them.

Let me know your thoughts

Marty,

I just wanted to reach out and ask about the status of the affidavit that we discussed.

Best regards,
