Subject: $200M FPL Bailout

Dear Sirs;

None of you idiots will probable see this letter. WHAT THE FUCK WERE YOU THINKING when you total dumb asses agreed to allow FPL to charge its customers $200M for clean-up of a canal that they were aware of and failed to fix.

But I have to pay the damages in a higher electric bills. WHAT THE FUCK WERE YOU IDIOTS THINKING, oh wait, your morons like that idiot in the White House so that explains it.

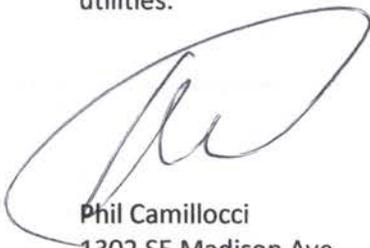

You were put in your positions to protect the residents of Florida not to serve the interests of big business.

FPL has deep pockets and should be paying for its own screw-ups not the public. Just like FPL wants the public to pay millions for a new reactor before it is built, but oh wait, they can try to charge us more than not build it at all and still keep the money. WTF is that about.

Most business secure their funding from banks or loans to build projects with their own funds and not from public funds.

I will commit my resources, time and effort to see that each of you fucking idiots is replaced.

Not going to sign this off as Respectfully, you dumbasses deserve no respect as you are total sellouts to utilities.
