RE: FPSC Inquiry Number 1265510C

Dear Mr. Camillocci:

The Governor's office forwarded a copy of your correspondence regarding Florida Power & Light Company (FPL) to the Florida Public Service Commission (FPSC). The FPSC regulates investor-owned electric, and natural gas utilities throughout the state, and investor-owned water and wastewater utilities in those counties which have opted to transfer jurisdiction to the FPSC. The FPSC has authority in the telephone industry which is limited to the Lifeline Assistance Program, Florida Relay Service, and pay telephone service. You expressed a concern about FPL's environmental cost recovery.

On December 12, 2017, the Commission found that FPL acted prudently in complying with environmental regulatory agencies' requirements for its Turkey Point Cooling Canal Monitoring Plan. FPL asked to recover the plan's costs through the FPSC's Environmental Cost Recovery Clause (ECRC).

The Commission found that while under the oversight of three different government agencies, and their respective monitoring requirements, none of the agencies found that FPL withheld or submitted false data. After a thorough review of the record, the PSC concluded that FPL was prudent in its actions and expenditures for the historic operation of Turkey Point's Cooling Canal Monitoring Plan. As required for ECRC recovery, FPL's monitoring plan is prudent and part of a government mandated regulation and, therefore, the plan's costs are appropriate for recovery.

While finding that FPL acted prudently, the FPSC disallowed recovery of the utility's $1.5 million escrow payment required by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection. FPL did not meet its burden of proof that the funds would be used to benefit FPL's ratepayers. FPL's 2017 and 2018 monitoring project costs and escrow payment removal are subject to true-up in future ECRC proceedings.
