Comments : When hurricane Irma hit Tampa my tree came down and ripped the teco line off the poll causing homes on my circuit loose power also. Teco lied to me and refused to have linemens trucks in my neighborhood come connect the line. They reset the breaker after one day power on for neighbors but stood stern refusing to simply have a lineman already in the area take 5 minutes and attach my line back to the poll.made me wait a WEEK to have this simple task done.we need solar power and less electric manopalies! Uncareing and power abusing companies must be finally a thing of the past!
