Sirs,

I have left a message with the local Ford dealerships service department requesting that they provide a list of the items they will check on the vehicle for the $200 fee. I also asked if they would be willing to check the functionality of the crane, merely does the winch work, full rotation and extension. I do have photos from the seller showing the crane in operation in that it is raised and in different positions... I would expect to have additional information to you in regard to this vehicle by end of day Wednesday. I plan on having the truck taken to the Ford dealership, payment on the corporate credit card with report to follow in the next few days.

Rob

Rob,

You need to work out a way to ensure that the crane is good.
