Ft. Meade: Yes, the methodology and process Ft. Meade used to calculate the impact of the TCJA is appropriate.

ISSUE 2: Were Accumulated Deferred Income Taxes ("ADIT") appropriately calculated?

Ft. Meade: Yes, ADIT is appropriately calculated.

DOCKET NO. 20180053-GU
PREHEARING STATEMENT

ISSUE 3: Are Ft. Meade's classifications of the excess ADIT between "protected" and "unprotected" appropriate?

Ft. Meade: Yes, Ft. Meade's classifications of the excess ADIT between "protected" and "unprotected" is appropriate.

ISSUE 4: A. Were "protected excess deferred taxes" for 2018 using a 21 percent corporate tax rate appropriately calculated?

Ft. Meade: Yes, "protected excess deferred taxes" for 2018 using a 21 percent corporate tax rate are appropriately calculated.

B. What is the appropriate disposition of the protected excess deferred taxes?

Ft. Meade: Ft. Meade proposes to retain the estimated amortized deferred balance less the unprotected deferred tax amortization, thereby fulfilling the purpose of the TCJA by allowing Ft. Meade to continue making capital improvements and potentially delaying a rate proceeding.

ISSUE 5: A. Were "unprotected excess deferred taxes" for 2018 using a 21 percent corporate tax rate appropriately calculated?

Ft. Meade: Yes, the "unprotected excess deferred taxes" for 2018 using a 21 percent corporate tax rate are appropriately calculated.

B. What is the appropriate disposition of the unprotected excess deferred taxes?

Ft. Meade: Ft. Meade proposes to retain the deferred tax liability associated with the net acquisition adjustment amortized over the life of the acquisition adjustment and unprotected deferred tax asset amortized over 10 years, netted against the protected excess deferred taxes.

ISSUE 6: Should Ft. Meade seek a private letter ruling from the IRS regarding its classification of the excess ADIT relating to cost of removal/negative net salvage as "unprotected"?

Ft. Meade: No, Ft. Meade should not be required to seek a private letter ruling from the IRS regarding its classification of the excess ADIT relating to cost of removal/negative net salvage as "unprotected."

ISSUE 7: If Ft. Meade seeks a private letter ruling and the IRS rules therein (or in another private letter ruling) that the excess ADIT relating to cost of removal/negative net salvage is to be treated as "protected," what process should be followed for the reclassification?

DOCKET NO. 20180053-GU
PREHEARING STATEMENT

Ft. Meade: The change would require a different amortization rate and a reclassification of the ledger amounts. Ft. Meade would continue to propose retaining the estimated amortization of the balances whether they relate to protected or unprotected ADIT.

ISSUE 8: What mechanism should be utilized to avoid the negative impact to Ft. Meade of the cost of seeking a Private Letter Ruling?

Ft. Meade: If directed to obtain a private letter ruling, Ft. Meade should be allowed to recover the costs associated with obtaining a private letter ruling by deferring the cost and to amortize the balance over four years in a manner consistent with rate case expense.

ISSUE 9: Were appropriate adjustments made to Ft. Meade's Gas Reliability Infrastructure Program "GRIP" for the impact of the TCJA for the tax year 2018?

Ft. Meade: Appropriate adjustments have not yet been made to FPUC's GRIP for the impact of the TCJA for the tax year 2018. FPUC is proposing in this case to treat the adjustments as a GRIP over-recovery in 2019, which FPUC believes would be an appropriate adjustment.

ISSUE 10: What is the forecasted tax expense for Ft. Meade for the tax year 2018 at a 21 percent corporate tax rate?

Ft. Meade: Excluding the effects of any amortization of protected and unprotected ADIT, or the refund of any benefits, the forecasted tax expense using the 21% corporate tax rate for Ft. Meade is negative $25,639. If GRIP is refunded and the ADIT amortized but not refunded, the forecasted tax expense using the 21% corporate tax rate for Ft. Meade is a negative $27,857.

ISSUE 11: What is the forecasted tax expense for Ft. Meade for the tax year 2018 at a 35 percent corporate tax rate?
