Dear Public Service Commission PSC,

As a Floridian age 50+, I'm focusing on rebuilding my life and community and don't want to worry about a higher power bill. Along with the financial hardships from the Hurricane Michael, as well as skyrocketing healthcare and housing prices and minimal increases in Social Security, an increase in monthly bills add up for people, like myself, who are on fixed incomes.

Everything in our area has gone up in price. We are paying more per gallon of gas, our construction costs are higher than average, and many of us are struggling to insure we can pay our insurance deductibles so we can rebuild our homes. Insurance companies are not responding quickly to requests for payment and many of us are digging into our savings to survive. I beg you to please not approve this request for a rate increase.

Sincerely,

Ms. Sharon Baskevic
