Dear Public Service Commission PSC,

As a Florida resident, age 70+, I, and most other residents in the Panhandle area and north as a result of Hurricane Michael have been devastated by the destruction and our losses. It will take many years to recover our losses, if ever, from Micheal's destruction. There is no one that we can pass the losses onto. Even though some of us may recover a small portion of or losses, there are many that could not afford insurance coverage and have lost everything with no way to recover in the life time they have left. But, BIG CORPORATE greed does not want to carry their part. To keep up their large and uncongenial profits Gulf Power wishes the PSC to burden those Florida Citizens already devastated to help fill their pockets. Instead of rewarding Gulf Power, Gulf Power should be giving back to the community. The PSC should let Gulf Power share some of the financial loss instead of rewarding them. .

Respectfully

Benny C. and Carolyn Basham

Sincerely,

Mr. Benny Basham
