Dear Public Service Commission PSC,

Docket 20190038| Comments from a Panhandle resident and Gulf Power consumer

Dear PSC

As a Floridian age 50+, I'm focusing on rebuilding my life and community and don't want to worry about a higher power bill. Along with the financial hardships from the Hurricane Michael, as well as skyrocketing healthcare and housing prices and minimal increases in Social Security, an increase in monthly bills add up for people, like myself, who are on fixed incomes.

We have to maintain Ins for Hurricanes and why should we pay for Gulf Power expenses. They should have insurance to pay for their costs. And where is all the money with the state that we have had to pay for other hurricanes in the state with our insurance yearly.

Sincerely
Byron and Barbara Kuhn
