Dear Commissioner Brown,

I wrote previously inquiring about the complaint I read that citizens issued to you that the electric companies were passing on the federal tax cut benefits to themselves or their parent company and in no way were they sharing with consumers especially on billing. As I wrote to you, I read about these complaints but never the resolution. I found your website confusing and could not find the decision made on this so I am writing for an explanation of what you decided.

Also, in good conscience, I cannot understand how you allow electric companies across the state to violate our electric standards which are not that good anyhow. I notice it is always in the poorer area that people are subjected to horrible violations exposing them to electric rays affecting their lives. People say it is because the electric companies are greasing the commissions hands to allow them to continue to function endangering the population. I do not want to believe it but since I continuously see awful violations in mostly poor areas, I have to accept that you are receiving somekind of benefit to allow this to be all over the state.

I am a photographer travelling the state of Florida which I love to document scenic venues. In my travels I always explore neighborhoods I visit so when I make a statement about awful electric violations, I know what I am talking about. If you want more specific information, I would gladly provide it to you.

Sincerely,

Barbara Rosenzweig

RE: FPSC Inquiry 1305171C

Dear Ms. Rosenzweig:

The Governor's Office of Citizen Services forwarded your correspondence to the Florida Public Service Commission (FPSC) regarding Florida Power & Light Company's (FPL).

You expressed concerns about FPL's petition for consideration of the tax impacts associated with Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 and a joint petition for rate reductions or alternative reverse make-whole rate case against Florida Power & Light Company, by Office of Public Counsel, Florida Industrial Power Users Group, and Florida Retail Federation. We will add your comments to the correspondence side of Docket Nos. 20180046 and 20180224, respectively.

If you want further case information, visit the FPSC's website, www.floridapsc.com and click on the Clerk's Office tab, then hit Dockets and type in Docket numbers 20180046 and/or 20180224; all submissions can be found by accessing the Document Filing Index.
