Thank you for your response. I am new to your website so I wonder if there is a way to be notified as an interested party.

Some time ago I did see the date posted but did not realize it could be changed once posted. Many of us in this area are very concerned with this company and the facility.

Thanks again, I really appreciate it.

Ms. Youngblood,

The NPUC staff-assisted rate case was not scheduled for yesterday's Florida Public Service Commission meeting. However, I spoke with the Commission staff assigned to this matter and they did inform me that at the customer meeting held on May 8th, there was discussion about possibly bringing it before the Commission on July 9th. It was later determined that more time was necessary to review this matter. As of today, a date has not been scheduled to bring this matter before the Commission.

If I can be of any further assistance, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

According to last weeks posted agenda the North Peninsula Utilities Corporation (NPUC)meeting was scheduled for yesterday, July 9. Was there a cancellation message that I missed? Has it been rescheduled? Perhaps I entered the wrong address when I attempted to access the site?
Please advise.
