Dear Florida PSC PSC,

We are in the middle of a pandemic with unemployment rampant in our state. Right now, Floridians need help making ends meet paying day-to-day expenses, including rising healthcare costs and prescription drug prices, as well as increasing rents and food costs.

What Floridians do not need now is to pay for services that benefits no more than 5 percent of ratepayers.

Electricity rates are already high enough, especially for older customers living on a fixed income and raising the rates will put an unnecessary hardship on many of them. Also very few people will benefit from this . I have my doubts that an increase in rates will change the response time, I fail to see how more money relates to time needed to to correct the problems and get people's electricity back up and running.
