Subject: RE: Removal/Replacement of Document No. 13054-2020

Hi Monica,

Per your request below the pdf version of DN 13054-2020 has been removed from CMS and is no longer available for viewing on the internet. It is noted that DN 13054-2020 indicated that it replaced DN 11983-2020 in its entirety. As Utilities, Inc. has withdrawn their Notice of Intent to request confidential classification of DN 11983-2020, CLK will be placing that formerly designated confidential document/pdf in CMS, which will also make it available for viewing on the internet. Please advise whether DN 11983-2020 should be considered proprietary/confidential with regard to OPCs information and not made available online.

Thank you for your help,
