Re: Docket No. 20200001-EI

Dear Mr. Teitzman:

Florida Power & Light Company (“FPL”) provides this letter as a follow up to the notice it submitted on November 13, 2020 pursuant to Section 25-6.0424(2) of the Florida Administrative Code, in which it advised that early November NYMEX settlement prices for natural gas suggested that FPL might have been in an under-recovery position for fuel costs of 10 percent for 2021. As indicated in that notice, FPL deferred by one month a decision regarding whether to file a mid-course correction petition due to volatility in the natural gas market. FPL has reevaluated its fuel cost recovery position as part of its normal monthly process and determined that, based on December 7, 2020 NYMEX settlement prices for natural gas, it is well below the 10 percent threshold set forth in Section 25-6.0424(2). Accordingly, FPL will not be filing a mid-course correction at this time.

Please contact me if you or your Staff has any questions regarding this notice.

Sincerely,

s/ Maria Jose Moncada
