Dorothy,

I'm sorry that Marty Deterding did not make it more clear in the Application. I represent the seller (Grenelefe Resort Utility) and Marty Deterding represents the two purchasing parties (NC Real Estate, and Grenelefe Resort Utilities Development).

Thank you, Marty

Good afternoon, Mr. Friedman,

Your message has been forwarded to me for response. Per your request, we have added Sundstrom Law Firm/Friedman to the parties list as a representative of Grenelefe Resort Utility, Inc. in Docket 20220142. I note that the joint application (DN 05328-2022), did include you as a person authorized to receive notices and communications, and that your contact information was not added at that time. I apologize for any inconvenience due to that oversight.

Based on the joint application, it was not clear in (to the Clerk's Office) who Mr. Deterding or you actually represent. The parties are Grenelefe Resort Utility (seller), NC Real Estate (buyer), and Grenelefe Resort Utilities Development (ultimate owner). Mr. Deterding's signature just says, "Of Counsel," but doesn't specify which entity. If you could provide that clarification, I would appreciate it. That way, I can make sure all of the contact information is accurate in this docket.

Subject: Docket No. 20220142-WS

Adam,

The Application for Transfer filed by Marty Deterding lists me as attorney for the seller, Grenelefe Resort Utility, Inc. but I do not see that I am listed as its attorney on the website (in fact it shows Marty Deterding as its attorney, which is not correct). I would appreciate if you could correct this. Do not hesitate to call if you have any questions.

Thanks, Marty
