Pursuant to Section 366.093, Florida Statutes (F.S.), and Rule 25-22.006, Florida Administrative Code, Duke Energy Florida (DEF or Company) requests confidential classification of certain information filed in the above-referenced docket, dated November 9, 2022.

The Company is claiming confidentiality of its filing under Section 366.093(3)(d), F.S., and Section 366.093(3)(e), F.S. Per the Statute, propriety of confidential business information includes, but is not limited to: Subsection (d) “[i]nformation concerning bids or other contractual data, the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the public utility or its affiliates to contract for goods or services on favorable terms,” and Subsection (e) “[i]nformation relating to competitive interests, the disclosure of which would impair the competitive business of the provider of the information.”

More specifically, the root cause analysis for the generator failure at Bartow CC. The information in question is information concerning bids or other contractual data that DEF claims the disclosure of which would impair the efforts of the Company to contract for goods and services on favorable terms. Further, it is also information relating to competitive interests of DEF.

Staff has reviewed the Company’s documents and confidentiality request. In staff’s opinion, the information that is the subject of DEF’s request meets the criteria for confidentiality contained in 366.093(3)(d), F.S., and 366.093(3)(e), F.S.
