Dear Jon,

I hope you had a good holiday break. As you can tell from my email, we have undergone an organizational name change. We are still the same organization and with the employees, but we just changed our name over the holiday break. How is it best to address these changes and the changes in our contact number in the above docket? Should I draft a motion and submit it in this docket or call the clerk's office directly? Thank you.

Sincerely,

Michael Weiss
