Subject: RE: Chris Richards response to Mr. Hashemi - Docket No. 20210098-WU

Dear Mr. Richards

You simply file a complete set and request removal of the incomplete set. That makes it simple.

Narrative, a week before last Friday you already knew I will call, I did call three times and left message on Friday, I had very little time to work on this, as I need to work to be able to survive. Now on Monday, you sent a response most of what you have responded relates to the fact that you have not viewed the 17-page filing as they were explored in my filing, then you decided to add an incomplete set of communication. As it stands, your set declares that I consider your response as a completed response, whereas my comments clearly show they are not. I would believe you can fix this, it is appropriate to fix it and also include up to this document or any other one.

Thank you for fixing this

Sincerely

Al Hashemi
