Walmart may cause to be filed a motion for either Mr. Williamson or Mr. Lee to be admitted pro hac vice before this Commission, and subsequent to any Commission grant of such request, Walmart requests that Mr. Williamson and Mr. Lee be added to the office service list as an attorney authorized to accept service of papers in this proceeding.

3. On January 23, 2023, Florida Power & Light Company ("FPL" or "Company") filed with the Commission its Petition for limited proceeding for recovery of incremental storm restoration costs related to Hurricanes Ian and Nicole ("Petition").

4. Walmart is a national retailer of goods and services through the United States with its principal office located at 2608 SE J Street, Bentonville, AR 72716.

5. Statement of Substantial Interest. Walmart operates 387 retail units, nine Distribution Centers, two Fulfillment Centers, and employs over 116,000 associates in Florida. In the fiscal year ending 2023, Walmart purchased over $8.2 billion worth of goods and services from Florida-based suppliers, supporting over 71,000 supplier jobs.¹ Walmart is also a large commercial customer of the Company, owning and operating approximately 179 retail stores, four distribution centers, and related facilities in the Company's service territory. Collectively, these facilities consume over 750 million kWh of electricity annually. The cost of electric utility service is a significant element in the cost of operation for Walmart at multiple locations throughout the state, which could be impacted by the outcome in this case, thus Walmart has a unique and substantial interest in this matter.

6. Walmart has a substantial and vital interests in the outcome of this proceeding that cannot be adequately represented by any other party.

7. Disputed Issues of Material Fact. At this time, Walmart anticipates that disputed issues of material fact in this proceeding may include the following:

- a. Whether costs are reasonably and prudently incurred.
- b. Whether costs are proposed to be recovered from ratepayers in a manner that reflects cost causation in the allocation and design of those rates.
- c. Whether costs for demand-metered customers are being recovered through an energy charge, or on a $/kWh basis, and not a demand charge, or a $/kW basis.

8. Disputed Legal Issues. Walmart has not yet identified or confirmed any disputed legal issues, and Walmart has not completed its analysis of FPL's Petition; however, Walmart reserves its right to do so.

9. Statement of Ultimate Legal Facts Alleged. The interests of Walmart as a large, multi-account customer of the Company that it seeks to protect are sufficient to warrant intervention and include whether FPL's proposed cost recovery is reasonable and in the public interest. Walmart anticipates that it will identify other issues of ultimate legal fact throughout the course of this proceeding.

10. Rules and Statutes Justifying Relief. As set forth within, Walmart is entitled to intervene in this docket. The rules and statutes that entitle Walmart to intervene and participate in this case include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Section 120.569 of the Florida Statutes;
- b. Section 120.57 of the Florida Statutes;

- c. Section 366.04 of the Florida Statutes;
- d. Section 366.041 of the Florida Statutes;
- e. Section 366.06 of the Florida Statutes;
- f. Section 366.96 of the Florida Statutes;
- g. Section 25-22.039 of the Florida Administrative Code;
- h. Section 28-106.201 of the Florida Administrative Code; and
- i. Section 28-106.205 of the Florida Administrative Code.

11. Requested Relief. Walmart requests that it be permitted to intervene as a full party in this proceeding.

12. Pursuant to Rule 28-106.204(3) F.A.C., Walmart conferred with the parties regarding Walmart's intervention. No party has indicated an objection to Walmart's intervention²

² FPL and the Office of Public Counsel have indicated that they take no position with respect to Walmart's intervention.

WHEREFORE, Walmart Inc. respectfully requests that the Commission grant this Petition to Intervene and be provided with full party status in this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

By /s/ Stephanie U. Eaton
