Thanks for the rate hike! Good job, give yourself a pat on the back, you deserve it.

You pander to all the major utilities allowing them to charge more for less instead of making them run efficiently and provide a good product.

I would love to own a business where I had a monopoly and anytime I wanted I could simply raise my rates.

Pitiful, allowing a company like Duke Energy use you so easily. I can't imagine what it must feel like being such a sell-out.

Maybe one day you could grow a backbone and stick up for the citizens you supposedly advocate for, but I won't hold my breath.
