ORDER SETTING HEARING FOR FAILURE TO COMPLY

IF NOT CURED WITHIN TEN (10) DAYS OF THE DATE OF THIS ORDER, CASE REMAINS ON THE OTSC DOCKET.
NO EXCEPTIONS.

THE COURT on its own motion, hereby orders all trial counsel/pro se parties to submit within ten (10) calendar days from the date of this Order Setting Hearing for Failure to Comply, a Case Management Plan and Case Management Order pursuant to the instructions located on the webpage below. Counsel is responsible for confirming the Case Management Plan is correct and accepted and the Case Management Order has been entered prior to the scheduled show cause hearing.

If not completed by the due date ordered herein, all trial counsel, not coverage counsel, and/or pro se parties are to appear before the Court in person only to explain to the Court why the Case Management Plan and Case Management Order were not completed timely as ordered both in AO 23-10, and by this order setting hearing for failure to comply.

Counsel and/or Parties will explain to the court why sanctions should not be imposed pursuant to Paragraph 16 of the Administrative Order No: 23-10, in re: Civil Case Management for non-compliance with same, before the undersigned on Brevard County's procedures for case management plans and orders and trial setting procedures are located on the webpage below.

Case Management Plans and proposed Case Management Orders will be submitted as outlined in the Brevard County Procedures for Setting Circuit Civil Trials. The mere filing of the Case Management Plan and Case Management Order will not ensure timely processing. You must follow the instructions at the website below for processing.
