Re: Florida 2024 Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (CLEC) Questionnaire

Dear Sir:

Enclosed is the 2024 Competitive Local Exchange Carrier (CLEC) Questionnaire for MCImetro Access Transmission Services LLC d/b/a Verizon Access Transmission Services ("Verizon Access") and a separate envelope containing Verizon Access's confidential FCC filing data.

Verizon Access considers the information in the Verizon Access FCC document to be proprietary and confidential business information because it is proprietary information that could be used by competitors to gain an unfair competitive advantage. Therefore, this filing is made under Claim of Confidentiality pursuant to F.S.364.183(1) and Rule 25-22.006(5), F.A.C. Verizon understands the information must be kept confidential until returned to Verizon.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions regarding the attached documents.

Respectfully submitted,

Melissa A. Burris

Verizon Access only files its switched access services and prices with the Florida Public Service Commission. These services as well as all other telecommunications services are published on our website at <https://www.verizon.com/tariffs>. Click on the state of Florida (on the map) and Verizon Business and Other Companies to find some of these services. Other services can be found by clicking on the “Verizon Enterprise Services Publication and Pricing Guide” on the left side of the map on the home page. Here you will find services available for large business customers.

6. Has your company experienced any significant barriers in entering Florida’s local exchange markets? Please describe any major barriers encountered that may be impeding the growth of local competition in the state, along with any suggestions for removing such obstacles. Any additional information is welcome. Please use additional paper if needed.

Response: Verizon Access has no significant barriers to report.
