CUSTOMER COMMENTS

Regarding the unequal and unfair rate increase to residential customers VS a lower increase to commercial customers. Businesses have a profit motive. As a retired fixed income senior citizen, we do not have the privilege of raises, promotions or bonuses, but are stuck with small increases to social security income and with large inflationary increases to all expenses. Please consider lowering the rate increase, and pass the same amount to all customers. Teco's bottom line would be the same.

Thank you for your consideration,
