To whom it may concern,

I am writing to protest the proposed rate increase by TECO (Docket 20240026).

TECO expects the average Tampa residential customer to bear the majority of the financial burden of this increase. I cannot in good conscience agree to the rate increase when TECO's return on equity is already higher than the average (current is 10.2% vs 9.6%).

I hope that the PSC will carefully evaluate the company's proposal and make a decision that is in the best interests of the community.

Sincerely,
Liza Rivera
