CONFIDENTIALITY NOTICE: This message is being sent by or on behalf of a lawyer. It is intended exclusively for the individual or entity to which it is addressed. This communication may contain information that is proprietary, privileged or confidential or otherwise legally exempt from disclosure. If you are not the named addressee, you are not authorized to read, print, retain, copy or disseminate this message or any part of it. If you have received this message in error, please notify the sender immediately by e-mail and delete all copies of the message.

With wire fraud, email hacking and phishing attempts on the rise, it is vitally important that prior to sending any funds, you call the Attorney, Paralegal, or Secretary working on your file to verify the wire instructions that you received. Only use verified contact information that you have been provided. Our Firm does not provide wire instructions via unsecure email so please do not respond to any email purporting to be from our Firm that indicates that updated or corrected wire instructions are attached or contained within the body of that email.

Unless expressly provided that the advice ("the advice") contained in the above message ("this message") is intended to constitute written tax advice within the meaning of Section 10.37 of IRS Circular 230, the sender intends by this message to communicate general information for discussion purposes only, and you should not, therefore, interpret the advice to be written tax advice. The sender will conclude that you have understood and acknowledged this important cautionary notice unless you communicate to the sender any questions you may have in a direct electronic reply to this message.
